

SLN Hydrographic Service generates income to the country

Chief Hydrographer of the Navy Rear Admiral Sisira Jayakody handed over a cheque worth of Rs. 1.69 million to the Commander of the Sri Lanka Navy Vice Admiral Sirimevan Ranasinghe at the Naval Headquarters yesterday.

The Sri Lanka Navy Hydrographic Service

(SLNHS) has generated this income through its commercial ventures by providing professional consultancy services and bathymetric surveys for private sector institutes.

Sri Lanka Navy having re-established its Hydrographic Wing in 2012 so far has achieved remarkable success under the incumbent Chief Hydrographer and expects to deliver more to the country in the future.

The Commander of the Navy appreciated the Chief Hydrographer for its recent achievements and assured continued support for the unit's future development.

Chief Hydrographer of the Navy Rear Admiral Sisira Jayakody handing over a cheque worth of Rs. 1.69 mn to Vice Admiral Sirimevan Ranasinghe